--Reality is not carved in stone. It is based on a point of view--

Learn practical strategies for self-development and successful life-changing principles that can be catalysts to changing your mind – changing your reality. Human behavior specialist, compelling speaker, humanitarian with over thirty years experience as a therapist, and the author of the best-selling memoir PURSUIT OF LIGHT: An Extraordinary Journey, Sandy Brewer provides practical strategies and a working roadmap for making the changes needed to create the life you want. Her life is a stunning reflection of the depth of the human spirit and the presence of the Divine within. Her work has been featured on NBC's Nightly News with Tom Brokaw and a nationally televised documentary.

Sandy will also be speaking at the Sunday Celebration Service beginning at 10:30 AM. Her topic is "Through the Eyes of Love."
